The bats were busy at Chatham HS on Monday and when the dust cleared Chatham had a 21-8 win over Coxsackie-Athens Indians in seven innings.

The two teams combined for 29 hits, including nine extra base hits.

Chatham outscored Cocksackie-Athens Indians thanks to 16 hits, including six extra base hits. Chatham scored seven runs in the third on an RBI single by Trevor Madsen, a walk by Jesse Whiteman, a walk by Evan Young, a passed ball, a passed ball, and an error.

Bryan McDonald was solid at the plate for Cocksackie-Athens Indians. McDonald went 3-4 and scored three runs. McDonald tripled in the first inning and singled in the third and seventh innings. Reilly was 4 for 4 and Pete Russo also added two hits for the Indians.

Chatham pounded Cocksackie-Athens Indians pitching, as six hitters combined for 11 hits, eight RBIs and 13 runs scored. Craig Hall was 3 for 4 and Evan Young, Cole Gleason, Tanner Niles, Nick Shaw and Cody Hall all had two hits apiece. The big blows came off the bat of Cody Hall and Nick Shaw who each had a triple. Shaw, Young, Gleason and Brad Doty each had a double for the Panthers.

Chatham starter Young was strong on the mound, as he threw strikes on 52 of his 89 pitches. Young collected six strike outs and walked two. Mike Vershelden pitched the 7th giving up 4 runs on 3 hits. "Evan was too good at times as he left a lot of his fastballs up in the middle of the plate. We need to work on spotting his fastball better but it was a very good first outing."

"Overall, I am very proud of the team. We were very disciplined at the plate as we waited for a pitch we could get the barrel on. We laid off a lot of good pitches today and it benefited us in the long run by giving us good hitting counts and pitches we could drive. Knowing Cocksackie we expect a battle when we travel to their place on Wednesday."- Scott Steltz
