Chatham and Greenville Spartans had no shortage of baserunners on Monday, but it was Chatham that was able to take advantage, pulling out a 3-1 win at Chatham HS Field.

Both teams scattered seven hits, but Greenville Spartans stranded eight runners on base.

Brad Doty, Evan Young, Jordan Sirani, Nick Shaw, and Cody Hall all collected hits for Chatham. Shaw led the team with two hits

Nick Faxon was strong on the mound, pitching out of trouble all day. Faxon struck out five and walked four for Chatham. "I am proud of Nick as he worked out of a lot of trouble today and kept his composure throughout the game." Tanner Niles also threw out 3 runners attempting to steal to aid the defense.

Greenville Spartans scored its only run of the game on an error in the first inning. Chatham grabbed the lead in the bottom of the 3rd when Evan Young drew a leadoff walk and Craig Hall reached on a Catcher's Interference. Cole Gleason moved the runners up with a good bunt and Tanner Niles hit a sac fly followed by Jordan Sirani's single to score the 2nd run. In the bottom of the 6th Nick Shaw led off with a single up the middle followed by a single by Cody Hall and a bunt single by Brad Doty to load the bases. Trevor Madsen reached on a fielder's choice which cut down Shaw at the plate and then Evan Young hit a fly ball to center that the centerfielder overthrew home plate on and allowed Cody hall to score the 3rd run.

Chatham's record is 6-3 league and 10-4 overall.
